Hmmm...good distinction between preparing a report and making a determination...thanks for pointing that out.

We could use our contractors to prepare a report, but not a who is responsible determination.

Subject: Animas River: OSRTI Mission Support Contract & Independent Review
Importance: High

All- Nick Hilosky from the OSWER IO just contacted me about whether there is an existing OSRTI mission support contract under which an independent review of the Animas River situation could be conducted (as in, who is responsible). Could you let me know if any of our contracts could be used for this purpose?
